Gran and Shiloh set off for the park.

Shiloh sped off on his bike.

His eyes were fixed on the path ahead

as his legs moved faster and faster.

Gran hurried along behind, trying to keep up,

but her eyes were

sparkling with happiness.

A little boy and his gran

going to the park!

Shiloh did a wheelie, to let Gran
catch up,

then, speeding back
towards her

he did another –
nearly tripping her up!
“Whew! Shiloh! Where did you get all the energy?”

“God gave me energy,

God gave me energy,” he chanted back.

“Hey, Gran, why did God give me energy?”

Back at home, Mum was cooking dinner

while Shiloh splashed in the bath.

Gran called, "Shiloh! Time to get out!"

"Can I have a story first?" he pleaded.

"OK, if it's more about God."

"OK, Gran!"
